CAREER DAY AT S.M.C.S-1966

Father Norman Fitzpatrick and Father Edward Ronan welcome a few of our guests.

On Career Day at St. Michael's, men who have distinguished themselves in their chosen profession, come to our school and speak to the Senior Students. Some of these professional men are pictured on this page.

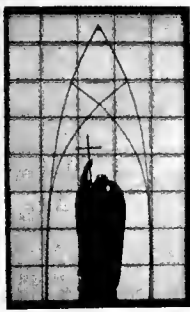

Father David Belyea, C.S.B., Professor at St. Michael's College, was a popular lecturer on Career Day.

Father Volpe introduces his brother Norfi who interested the "camp followers" in the law profession.

SOCIAL

1965 GRADUATION 1966

Michael Lemche was chosen by his fellow-graduates as Valedictorian.

Mr. J. F. Kinlin, a member of the Policy and Development Council of the Department of Education, gave the Address to the Graduates.

On a beautiful day in October the Graduates, under the direction of Father Whelan, move in procession to the auditorium.

A section of the large crowd that filled the auditorium for the Graduation Exercises . . . Parents, Relatives, Teachers and friends.

Mr. J. F. Kinlin, a parent, an educator, and a good friend of St. Michael's inspired his listeners in his Address to the Graduates.

Father M. Sheedy, C.S.B., former Principal of St. Michael's, presented the Diplomas to the Graduates.

Sections of the large crowd that gathered on the grounds for the "after-Graduation Garden Party"

Saturday, October 2nd was Graduation Day in 1965. The Graduates and their parents assisted at Mass and received Holy Communion in Holy Rosary Church at 9:30 a.m. Breakfast with the Faculty followed, and then came the Graduation Ball.
The Grand March and the Buffet.

The food was excellent and enjoyed by the "Grads" and guests
Even though it was a Formal all styles of types of dances were in evidence

THE DOUBLE BLUE BALL

"PACIFIC
PARADISE"

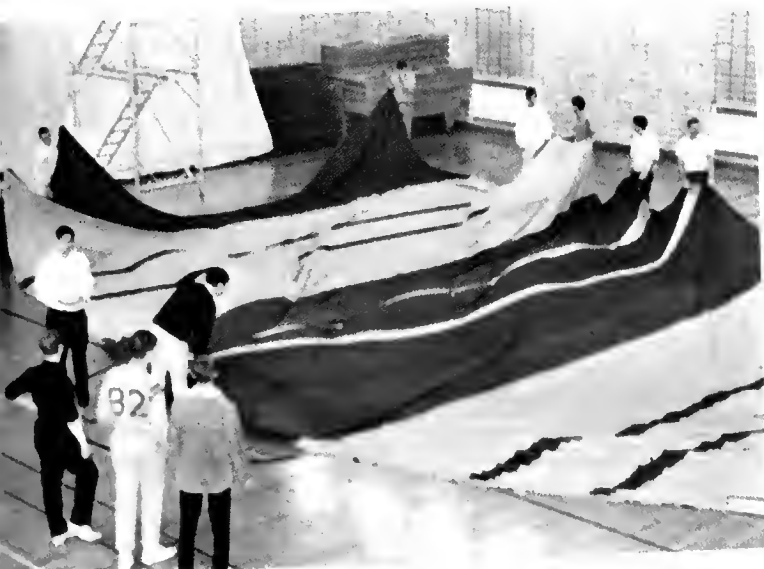

"Pacific Paradise and the South Seas" was the theme . . . and with so much beauty around, it was truly a Paradise.

The Decorating Committee worked many hours; but their efforts were truly appreciated.

S.M.C.S. is NOT a Co-Ed School. However, the girls are always welcome.

The "gym" was a beautiful Paradise after the workers finished their job just a few minutes before the first guests arrived.

Some of the "Gang" that deserves so much credit. "Thanks, fellows"

Scorpions, Sea Horses, the Nereids (or are they a couple of South Sea Natives) palm trees and the Batman guard the entrance to the Lounge.

Miss Diane Beauvais, vocalist with the Pat Riccio Orchestra, enters the exciting land of the Pacific Paradise through the bamboo drapes of a native hut.

Mr. N. John McNeill, Q.C. welcomes Michael Lemche and Joanne Webster while Mrs. McNeill and Father Egsgard look on.

The Men of St. Michael's and their guests were bewildered by the strikingly unusual and excitingly strange atmosphere of a Pacific Paradise.

The colourful volcano was one of the many features in the Pacific Wonder-Land. Congratulations, Joe!

Vicky Upper "just loves that poor, little fish".

Don Bannan, front and center, dances "Fast" with Joanne Conrad while his twin (lover Doug) moves "Slow" with Nancy Grant. One of the Rodge boys relaxes in the background.

The exotic scenery on a South Sea Isle is a beautiful setting for the 1966 Double Blue Ball. Turn the page and see how colourful it really was.

Fisherman's Cove was a restful spot for the dancers during the Intermission. It was a popular spot for those who would rather watch.

The Grand March turned into a foot race. Mr. Younder had a tough time trying to keep up with the "young ones".

"The Grand March" at a more peaceful pace. Mr. Dignan and his lovely wife, Anita, are seen in the foreground.

As the midnight hour approached, President Bill McNeill call the crowd "Front and Center". The Queen is about to be introduced.

Bill McNeill, President of the Student Council.

... and the Queen of the Double Blue Ball, 1966, is Miss Joanne Webster of St. Joseph's High School Islington, Ontario

The Queen and the Princesses Cathy Whelan, Linda Sherwin, Joanne Kelly, Maxine Magnus, Jocelyn Ouellette, The Queen, and Miss Leona St. John of Notre Dame. Leona was our Queen in 1965.

MANUAL ARTS

Many friends gathered around to be with Father "Ted" Flanagan on the occasion of his "25th" Anniversary. Seen with him in this picture are Father John Egsgard, Father George Thompson, Monsignor Barnett, and Father McCorkell.

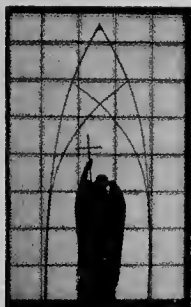

Another personality seen frequently around the Campus is Mr. Ed Mitchell, Head Coach of the Senior Kerry Blues.

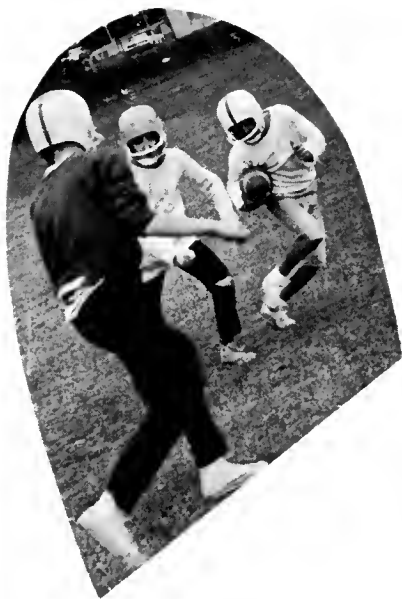

Emil Raytek and his lovely wife Donna, thoroughly enjoyed themselves at the Old Boys' Dance.

Mr. Bill Deegan of Station CFRB fame accepts an Honourary Membership to the Saint Michael's College School Old Boys' Association. It was presented to him by the President, Mr. Dick Wakely at the Old Boys' Dance in February. The Membership is official and here we see Dick presenting the handsome scroll in an exquisite frame (eight dollars) to Bill. Back to the kitchen, Dad!
